

I have enjoyed having no calls during my dinner hour and all evening.
I cannot believe that you are thinking of changing this. What happened to privacy and peace and quiet at home. Phones are for personal use, not for the world to invade you private time.